Executive Summary

The superconscious.net focuses on alleviating the relatively new threat of diminished online privacy by utilizing applications, software, infrastructure or other services via the internet rather than managing them in-house, personally or completely disregarding the threat.

Major Benefits

1

Personal and Corporate VPN access from any device

2

Revocable public key encryption managed through a simple interface

3

Sub-channels, targeting specific audiences, for effective control of personal and business brand objectives

4

Simplified communication and privacy control for online content

5

A simple interface for the most powerful security available

6

A unified secure communication channel for interaction within as well as outside the superconscious network

Because of these benefits Superconscious Net will be the premier online communication platform for businesses and individuals alike. Ease of use, complete and seamless integration, along with end-to-end peace of mind.

Our holistic approach to privacy unleashes your potential to influence online.

Understanding the market

DIMINISHED ONLINE PRIVACY

Feel secure on the Internet wherever you are using strong encryption members can browse using their own virtual private network from any device.

Diminished online privacy introduced through the use of internet hosted software, databases, and other applications depended upon for nearly all aspects of interpersonal as well as business communication by companies and individuals alike has gained significance as a result of perpetual disclosures of high profile data breaches. This latest development in internet technology exposes more sensitive personal and business data to substantial risk on a continuous basis.
